RETAIL/ WHOLESALE

PAAR CENTER

PORT ST. LUCIE

Scope and Responsibilities:

After realizing a financial success with the Jaslo Center in the exploding growth market of southwest Port St. Lucie, developer Charles Grunbaum hired Richard K. Davis Construction Corporation Design/Build Service for the Paar Center just a block away. By utilizing the economics of Butler® Manufacturing's structural steel system and MR-24 Standing Seam Metal Roof in combination with conventional elements of stuccoed masonry and concrete tile entry features, another successful retail strip center now graces Port St. Lucie Boulevard.

Date of completion:
March 2006

Total square footage:
25,980 Building
